

Dinner Set For Thursday At Bolling

BY ELIZABETH SHELTON

THE first name's Truman; last name Landon, but the middle initial H. is not for Hoover. Maj. Gen. (Lt. Gen.-designate) Landon, the new air force-inspector general, claims for a middle name, Hem-pel.

He takes office succeeding Lt. Gen. Bryant Boatner in a pyramidal shift that sends Bolling's popular Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Orval Cook up and over to Europe.

Gen. Cook, promoted to four-star rank, will be right-hand man to the commander in chief of United States forces in Europe, Gen. Alfred E. Gruenther. Mrs. Cook plans to join her husband abroad in March. He succeeds Gen. Thomas T. Handy, whose retirement on March 31 is now being planned.

Also nominated for a fourth star is Lt. Gen. Earle E. Partridge, who with Mrs. Partridge is enjoying the farewell salute of Fort Myer neighbors and air force colleagues before going to Tokyo to command the far east air force.

ON Thursday, the new four-star generals and their wives will be among 50 guests at the second informal dinner in a series given by the deputy director of the central intelligence agency, Lt. Gen. Charles P. Cabell, and Mrs. Cabell in their Bolling quarters.

The 7:30 p.m. fete, for which Mexican menu and decor are being planned by the vivacious hostess, will honor Air Force Secretary and Mrs. Talbott and Air Force Chief of Staff and Mrs. Twining.

Sharing south of the border delicacies with the Cooks, Partridges and Boatners and the honor guests will be Lt. Gen. Thomas D. White, air force vice chief of staff, and Mrs. White, and former Assistant Air Force Secretary and Mrs. Harold B. Stuart.

Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. Peyton J. Edwards, and Mrs. Harry G. Armstrong, wife of the air force surgeon general, will attend, as will Lt. Gen. Ira Eaker, U.S.A.F. (ret.), and Mrs. Eaker, who will be in town for several days.

Others on the list of invitees are Air Force Lt. Generals L. C. Craigie, Frank F. Everest, Charles B. Stone, Emmett O'Donnell Jr., Idwal Edwards (ret.); Maj. Generals Robert W. Burns, E. W. Anderson, Emery S. Wetzel, William D. Eckert, Morris J. Lee, Manuel J. Asensio, John McCormick and Roger M. Ramey.
